And there's enough more of the same to fill two columns of THE LEDGER.

But this is enough to warn the state that this is a mighty poor year for Democrats.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

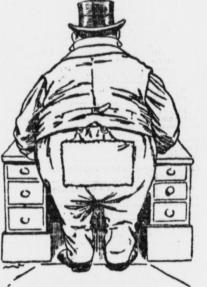

Thomas Basford, formerly of Paris, was shot and killed in San Francisco yesterday. There are no particulars, but it is presumed he was killed while duty as he was a bullion in the City Court there. He is a brother of Allen Basford, a well known merchant tailor and tanner, and of James Basford, known in distilling circles.

HURRAH FOR INDIANA!

Have Your Heard What the Wild Waves Say?

REPUBLICANS ARE RAMPANT.

Democratic Strongholds Swept as by a Kansas Cyclone.

THIS IS WHAT DID IT.

THE LEDGER has given to space a great epilogue of Tuesday's elections.

It won't require much room, however, to record the Democratic victories.

DEMOCRATIC.

In the Third District of Ohio Sorg, Democrat, is elected to Congress by about 1,300—a Democrat by 2,700.

In Indiana one citizen that received the majority of Democratic tickets are defeated. The Republicans carried the city by 500, but now the Republicans elect their ticket by majorities ranging from 900 to 1,500.

REPUBLICAN.

The most significant and overwhelming victory was at Ft. Wayne, usually Democratic by from 2,500 to 3,000. The Republican candidate for Mayor and the entire ticket was elected by 400.

Scarcely less overwhelming was the defeat of the Democracy sustained in Terre Haute, the home of Senator Voorhees. Two years ago the Democrats carried the city by 500, but now the Republicans elect their ticket by majorities ranging at this season.

The result in New Albany is almost incredible. Here, with a Democratic majority of over 1,000 to overcome, the Republicans elected every candidate, the Democrats not even electing a single Councilman. This is the first time in its history that the Republicans have carried New Albany.

Scarcely less astonishing was the result in Columbus and Seymour. Both cities elected Republican officials, a Republican gain of 1,100 being shown in the former place.

At Lafayette, where the Democrats have been in control, the Republicans elect the Mayor by 500, and control the Council by 6 to 8.

Jeffersonville, which is usually reliably

Democratic by 300, elects the whole Republican ticket.

Democratic Anderson elects a Republican Mayor by 500.

The Democratic cities of Alexandria and Elwood join the Republican column.

South Bend turns out their Democratic officers and shows a Republican gain of over 500.

Brazil changes her politics and is a Republican.

Lawrenceburg repudiates Democracy and elects the Republican candidates by an average majority of 250.

Even Democratic Brookville, Mo., has elected a Republican Mayor.

And there's enough more of the same to fill two columns of THE LEDGER.

But this is enough to warn the state that this is a mighty poor year for Democratic.

The correspondent in Muhlenberg county reports that bugs are infesting tobacco plants. Cut-worms are doing considerable damage to corn and gardens in the Southern counties.

Perhaps the March freeze killed them along with the rest of the garden truck.

The Rev. E. L. Southgate, Chaplain of the Confederate Veterans' Association at Lexington, has resigned his position owing to the criticism of his utterances by sympathizers with Colonel Breckinridge. The reverend gentleman expressed the opinion that the Congressman ought not to be returned to Congress.

DAYLIGHT FOOTPADS.

They Held Up a Lewis County Man Yesterday, and Got $3.

Charles Norman is his name. From Poplar Flat he came. He met a pair of footpads. Who robbed him of his "scads." If you don't like that poetry you don't have to.

But to return: Norman and a fellow hayseed came down to see the town and buy a barrel of flour and a load of coal.

Somehow or another Norman got separated from his partner and the wagon while the latter was being loaded at Womeldorf's Elevators.

Meandering around in the neighbor hood of Mt. Olivet, Mitchel & Co.'s Foundry, he probably became so engrossed watching Bob Keen make the sparks fly that he didn't notice the approach of a brace of "beats."

At all events, before he had time to tell them he had 75 cents more in his vest pocket, a couple of local toughs ordered him to "hold up his hands," when they went through like a dose of salts.

The Democratic State Central Committee of North Dakota adopted resolutions rebuking the Democrats in the Senate for their inactivity at this time, when the country demands prompt legislation. Where is the Democratic party at, anyhow?

IRELAND has 107,774 paupers—that is, inmates of the almshouse or in receipt of outdoor assistance. That's a pretty good showing out of a population of less than 5,000,000, and goes a long ways to show what British Free-trade has done for that once prosperous people.

OUR drowning friends of the late Democratic party are grasping at the results of the Tariff of 1846 as a straw to save them. The Walker Tariff was well enough in its way; but, gentlemen, tell us something about your "Free-trade Tariff" of 1857? Now don't all speak at once; wait till Brother MARSH opens the box with his little hatchet.

GROVER CLEVELAND's interference in framing legislation on the Tariff Bill was fully exploited in the Senate a few days ago. So painful and so shameful was the exposure that the Chairman of the Finance Committee, Mr. VOORHEES, was driven into passive denial, which can find support only in technicality, and which will be practically shown to be untrue within the next thirty days.

The proceedings developed the fact that the negotiations for a compromise between the warring Democrats are being guided by President CLEVELAND and his Secretary of the Treasury, and that the entire plan of the Administration is to make every concession necessary to get the bill through the Senate and into the Conference Committee, where every "I" and "T" of its schedules will be dotted and crossed in exact accordance with the wish of Mr. CLEVELAND.

These interesting developments were precipitated by the Republican leader, Senator ALDRICH of Rhode Island.

Senator LINDSAY of Kentucky was vociferating a Free-trade argument, in the course of which he had a great deal to say about something he called "the policy of the Democratic party."

Mr. ALDRICH boldly declared that nobody could tell what that policy is, and put Mr. LINDSAY in a dilemma by asking whether he agreed with the doctrine of Mr. MILLS that revenues should be raised from coffee, tea and sugar, and the duty on iron and steel reduced.

To this Mr. LINDSAY replied that Mr. MILLS did not voice the sentiment of the Democratic party, a disownment which made the Texas Free-trader glare at the Kentuckian with ill suppressed rage.

Mr. ALDRICH taunted the majority by saying that neither the Texas nor the Kentucky Senator knew what the Democratic party wanted, and this provoked Mr. LINDSAY into the impudent declaration that "if the Republicans would agree to take a vote upon the tariff bill today the Democratic policy would immediately become evident."

At this point Mr. ALDRICH threw his gauntlet into the lists. He caused a sensation by vote upon the Tariff bill as it came from the House at 3 o'clock that day.

Mr. LINDSAY gasped, but found breath to ask why Mr. ALDRICH did not include the amendments made by the Finance Committee of the Senate. Even to this Mr. ALDRICH baldly asserted, declaring that he would agree to a vote at once upon the bill as it now stands, including the amendments—most of which are merely verbal—which have thus far been reported by the Finance Committee. Mr. ALDRICH challenged both Mr. LINDSAY and Mr. HARRIS, the Democratic leader, to accept his proposition.

LINDSAY weakly replied that he was not authorized to speak for the majority of the Senate, while Mr. HARRIS remained silent. Both of Mr. ALDRICH's challenges being thus declined, Mr. LINDSAY continued his speech.

It is possible, by a recent invention, to take five different photographic views of a person at one sitting. The apparently different attitudes are produced by the aid of mirrors.

The canon balls used in the battle of New Orleans were manufactured at the State Iron Works on the Licking river in Bath county. They were floated down in flatboats to the Ohio and thence to New Orleans. One of the boats loaded with balls sank in the Licking at the mouth of Trippet creek, and it still remains there.

About the Situation.

Along in 1863 Artemus Ward lectured in Philadelphia, and in the course of his remarks said: "I know a gentleman who has watched the progress of this war very closely, and who is certainly able to give an opinion on most matters, and asked him what he thought of the war. He said that after watching the movements of the army carefully, and reading the news papers, making inquiries of army correspondents, getting possessed of all the knowledge of the heads of departments, and from the reliable telegraphic corps at Washington, he is dead—if he knew what he did think." A somewhat careful reading of the Mugwump press of the country leads to the belief that the secret opinion of the bewildered editors of those organs concerning the Cleveland Administration might be expressed in the precisely the same language. The rest of the people, not including gulls, know exactly what they think, and it isn't complimentary.

LIEUT. PEARY.

Plans Completed for the Rescue of the Arctic Explorer.

The Party Will Leave Philadelphia About June 24 for St. Johns.

If Conditions Are Favorable the Auxiliary Expedition Will Make an Exploration of the Baffin Bay Shore of Ellesmere Land for Two Swedish Naturalists.

New York, May 8.—The geographical club of Philadelphia has completed the plans for the forthcoming expedition organized to effect the return of Lieut. Peary and his party to the United States. The expedition was arranged for by Lieut. Peary before he started on his present venture, and the funds necessary for carrying it out were, in the main, supplied by him. The command of the expedition has been turned over to Mr. Henry G. Bryant, the recording secretary of the geographic club.

The party will leave New York about June 24 for St. Johns. It is known that party will sail on the afternoon of June 1. The first stop will be made at Godhaven, on Diago Island. Continuing north, Melville bay will be crossed and a brief visit will be made to the settlement of primitive Eskimos, near Cape York. The party will then proceed to the Peary headquarters at Bowdoin bay, in Ingelfield gulf, in latitude 75 deg 45 min., which point it is hoped will be reached by July 23.

Lieut. Peary and the members of his inland party will not return from their long arduous trip until about Aug. 15.

August 15 is deemed advisable to acquaint the members of the party at Anniversary Lodge, in Bowdoin bay, of the presence of the Falcon, and at the same time deliver the mail and gain assurance of the safety of all hands.

If conditions are favorable, the plans of the auxiliary expedition will contemplate an examination of the Baffin bay shore of Ellesmere land, with a view to looking for records of the two ill-fated Swedish naturalists, Björklund and Kallstenius, whose schooner was wrecked on the Carel islands in the summer of 1881.

The speaker mentioned that the party had agreed to examine the Baffin bay shore of Ellesmere land, with a view to looking for records of the two ill-fated Swedish naturalists, Björklund and Kallstenius, whose schooner was wrecked on the Carel islands in the summer of 1881.

The auxiliary party will not exceed ten in number. It is known that Dr. Axel Ohlin, a Swedish scientific man; depicted by the friends of Björklund and Kallstenius in Sweden to participate in the search for the young adventurers, will be a member of the party.

AGED WIDOW DRUGGED.

Young Man Tried to Marry Her and Forged a Will.

PHILADELPHIA, May 3.—Ross Landers, of Chicago, and W. L. Brown, of this city, have been held in $2,000 bail on charges of conspiracy with an endeavor to swindle an aged widow out of using drugs in order to induce her to marry him and make a will in his favor, and Brown as an accomplice. The testimony showed that while Mrs. Catherine M. Schacklett, of Alexandria, Va., a widow, a few years ago, was in Chicago last summer, Landers robbed her, was arrested, but was forgivably released. O'Rourke reprimanded Juror Hoad severally, and, dismissing the jury, continued the case until the next term of court.

CHURCH FAIR RAFFLES.

The United States Senate Discusses Them as Gambling Institutions.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—In the senate Wednesday the bill to prohibit the use of the lottery ticket through national and interstate commerce and the postal service, was on motion of Mr. Hoar (E. B., Mass.), taken from the calendar for consideration.

The protest was made by Mr. Vest (Md.) against the extension of anti-gambling laws to religious fairs, where articles are raffled for charitable purposes. To a question by Mr. Gray (dem., Del.) whether church members should be exempted from the proposed legislation, Mr. Vest replied that if an amendment thought appropriate were made, the bill would be placed on the same footing as the Louisiana or Havanna lotteries, he was welcome to his opinion. Mr. Gorman (dem., Md.) coincided with the views expressed by Mr. Vest.

Mr. Gray remarked that that provision could be made that would prohibit the offense of gambling and at the same time contain a provision that church members and amateur people might gamble a little for pious purposes. It would be mischievous legislation.

Mr. Gorman, in enforcement of his own and Mr. Vest's views, said that there was not a charitable institution in Maryland operated up to twenty years ago that had not been the creation of lottery systems by law, and that the same was true in Boston.

Mr. Gray also said that the Little Sisters of the Poor, two-thirds of the revenue came from those innocent frauds. The bill went over without action.

The conference on the bill to protect birds and animals and to punish crime in the Yellow Stone national park was then agreed to.

The tariff bill was then taken up, and Mr. Lodge addressed the senate in opposition. He was followed by Mr. Square, who also addressed the senate in opposition.

After the consideration of executive business, the senate at 5:45 p. m., adjourned till Thursday at 11 a. m.
